Vincent Gore Named Chief Nursing Officer at Reeves Regional Health

Gore brings extensive nursing and healthcare management experience to local healthcare system.

PECOS, Texas (July 15, 2024) – After an extensive search for a new Chief Nursing Officer Reeves Regional Health (RRH) announces the appointment of Vincent (Vince) Gore, DNP, MBA, RN, NEA-BC, ACHE, to the position. Leading an approximate 386-person nursing crew at RRH, Gore brings a dynamic nursing and healthcare management background to Reeves County.

“When it came to finding a qualified person who can help the hospital continue its success in patient care, it was important for us to bring someone onboard who understands how hospitals work and knows why we’re here,” said Brenda McKinney, CEO of RRH. “With an impressive academic and professional background, Vince meets the criteria we set for the position, and we have confidence that he will serve both our healthcare system and patients well.”

As the Chief Nursing Officer, Gore will oversee all nursing-related operations at RRH, ensuring that patients are cared for according to professional, clinical, and staffing standards. Partnering with medical providers, he guarantees smooth collaboration between patients, nurses, and the rest of the hospital’s medical team.

Gore obtained his Doctor of Nursing Practice degree from Texas Tech University Health Science Center in Lubbock, Texas, and his Master of Business Administration and Master of Science in Nursing from Texas A&M University in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Before coming to Pecos, Gore served as the Chief Nursing Officer at Ward Memorial Hospital in Monahans, Texas. His career has also spanned various roles across acute and specialty care hospitals in Texas, Arkansas, and Oklahoma.

“I am honored to join the dedicated and compassionate team at Reeves Regional Health,” said Gore. “I look forward to working closely with the exceptional nurses and staff to continue delivering outstanding care to our community. Bringing my passion, drive, and experience to RRH, I am eager to contribute to the hospital's mission of providing top-quality healthcare and making a positive impact on the lives of our patients and their families.”
